Dear PLC,

This year's theme is "Are you tougher than a Scoutmaster?"

Come compete against your Scoutmasters. A scoutmaster team will compete at each event including the race. If you score more total points than they do, you "Are Tougher than a Scoutmaster" and will be duly recognized.

Ask your Scoutmaster or Assistant Scoutmasters if one or two of them would be willing to show the scouts how it is done and set the bar for the competition at one of the events.

Work with your fellow scouts to prepare to compete with each other and the Scoutmasters. Camp one or two nights or come out for the day only. Separate champions will be awarded for Ventures, Boy Scouts, and Brownsea Scouts (Scout, Tenderfoot, Second Class Scouts). There will also be a Grand Champion this year that will be announced at the Merit Badge Trail Drive.

We will also offer your older scouts an "Extreme Klondike" Option. Ask the older Scouts if they are bored with the same Klondike and desire a challenge. Invite them to camp with your Troop on Friday night and then compete for the "Extreme Klondike" award Sat morning through Sun morning. They will attend Winter Survival Camping Training, build a sled as a team and orienteer over to Falling Timbers for winter survival camping. Build a shelter with tarps and wood poles, camp in your shelter (bring a sleeping bag), build a fire with primitive tools, cook dinner without pots or foil, and compete in some challenging scouting skills. Complete the challenge and be one of the first scouts to earn the "Extreme Klondike" patch. Pre-registration is mandatory to compete in the Extreme Klondike Derby. The last day to sign up for Extreme Klondike is 19 January 2015.

There will be many awards available to compete for and separate categories for Venture Scouts, Boy Scouts and new this year Brownsea Scouts (Open to Scout/Tenderfoot/Second Class Scouts + one older scout to help lead the team). Separate events will also be held for Webelos.

Please note that Troops, Crews, and Webelos are not required to have complete Sled Teams when they arrive. Klondike Derby team will help form sled teams on Friday night for any smaller groups or lone scouts for Extreme Klondike.

Sleds not required. The sled race will be separate from the Klondike Events this year so if you don't have a sled and want to compete as a sled team you can carry your materials from town to town in something other than a sled.

Yours in Scouting
