Electronics Lock-In is a “Go.” Rich Kutter has graciously volunteered to lead this event on 7 Feb 2014. See attached flyer for additional info. Sign-up sheets are on the Scout Hut bulletin board. Consent form is posted on Troop 71 website, <http://www.troop71.info>.

Pancake Breakfast fund-raiser is on Sunday, 8 Feb 2015. All scouts participating in the electronics lock-in are required to help with the breakfast. Scouts may also sign-up just for the breakfast fund-raiser. All scouts helping with this even will receive service hours (usually 3.0 to 3.5 hours each).

Scout Sunday, 8 Feb 2015, is when Aley United Methodist Church presents Troop 71 with its annual charter. Scouts are needed to serve as ushers, greeters, flag bearers, etc. Check with Mr. Evan James, scoutmaster, for more info.

Details:

This is an overnight event normally held at the Scout Hut. It starts around 5:00 pm and run until about 11:00 am. The Scouts bring game consoles (Xbox, PS2, Wii), games, and controllers. Usually, someone sets up a Local LAN by linking laptops together. The boys play computer games 'til late. A fee is collected and Pizza is delivered during the night. Various drinks are available all night (can be lemonade in big coolers). Usually, donuts and orange juice are served for breakfast.

The next morning, some Scouts participate in the Aley Church Scout Sunday while others take part in the Aley Church pancake breakfast. Those involved in Scout Sunday serve in various roles during the Aley Church Sunday service -- greeters, ushers, readers, etc. Scouts and parents who are associated with the pancake breakfast prepare and serve an all-you-can-eat event for Aley churchgoers.

Scouts may volunteer for just the Scout Sunday events; however, those participating in the electronics lock-in are expected to also perform duties during the pancake breakfast.

Parents drop off their Scouts Saturday afternoon and pick them up around noon on Sunday (after the pancake breakfast).

Webelos are welcome until 1030pm — unless staying overnight with a parent.
