Subject: Reminder: Tonight is NOT PLC (only). Tonight IS OA Elections, Swim Tests, and PIZZA!

OK, so after last week's storms (Tornado in Beavercreek?), we rescheduled the swim tests at Greene Valley Rec Club (GVRC) for tonight. I've checked with our SPL, and the event will still occur tonight.

It's a little "Chilly" right now. I can't promise lots of swimming time, but we DO need to get swim tests done, and an election held for the Order of the Arrow. Remember, for a valid election to occur, we need at least half the registered scouts present. I will NOT be kicking people out of the pool unless they show clear signs of NEEDING it.

So, despite the temperature, we're going to have tonight's meeting at the pool. Bring warmer clothes to wear after you dry off, and everyone should be fine. We might get a campfire started in the fire ring out there as well...

See you starting at 6PM. (If you come at the normal 7PM time, no foul has occurred, we simply get testing started quicker this way...)
